Welcome to the Swan Valley
Welcome to the Wine and Art of the Swan Valley, Off the Beaten Track.

The Swan Valley is home to some of the most talented winemakers and artists that you will ever meet.

This Wine and Art trail is an authentic meet-the-maker experience. Discover the creative talent behind family owned and operated wineries, handcrafted products and stunning artistic works.

As part of the trail experience you will travel off the beaten track through some of the Swan Valley’s most picturesque and rustic landscapes, located at the foothills of the Darling Scarp.

When visiting these family owned wineries, you will gain an insight into the commitment and challenges associated with handcrafting premium wines from the vineyard to the bottle.

For many, the next generation are now bringing their own expertise and ideas.

Meanwhile, a visit with our artists will enable you to get up close and personal with truly unique works of art. Bespoke and architectural sculptures and artworks crafted from forged iron, steel and copper, which are sought after by collectors from around the world.

Published days open for all venues are subject to change.

1. GOMBOC GALLERY SCULPTURE PARK
Gomboc Gallery Sculpture Park founded in 1982 is the oldest privately-owned gallery and sculpture park in Western Australia. Talented sculptor Ron Gomboc and his wife Terrie are recipients of numerous awards that recognise their community spirit and dedication to the artist community all over the world.

Visitors today can immerse themselves in the outdoor sculpture display spread over 4.5 hectares and an indoor gallery comprising five large exhibition spaces that feature the works of established and emerging artists of all disciplines.

1. GOMBOC GALLERY
After Ante Cobanov in 1937, Windy Creek Estate is a niche boutique winery nestled at the foot of the Darling Escarpment with one of the Swan Valley’s most impressive vistas.
Family owned and operated for over 80 years, it is not unusual to see third and fourth generation working together.
Third generation winemaker Tony Cobanov has developed a reputation for producing fine wines using modern and traditional winemaking techniques and sustainable practices.
The focus is single vineyard estate grown wines—crisp white styles, reds that are earthy and well balanced and rich Fortified styles.
Tony and his wife Ruth invite you to enjoy their friendly hospitality and a wine tasting to remember.

2. GARBIN ESTATE WINES
Established in 1956, this family-owned winery produces award winning boutique white, red and Fortified wines with fruit sourced from their Swan Valley and Gingin vineyards, grown with low chemical inputs, pesticide free and vegan friendly.
Winemaker Peter Garbin, wife Katrina and sons Joel and Adam Garbin have a philosophy of hands on winemaking specialising in “methode traditionelle” production (methode numbers required).
